(PUNEHALTORIAG Exterior: 'a be Committee' reported to the Llouse .yesterday. The report, on motion of Mr. Yose, was laid on the table, jeeted. to be taken up to day, and 1000 copies ordered to be printed. The Com. reported Mr. Kent in the letter of our correspondent 3. There apegrees to be some diversity of opinion as to the copres the Senate will adopt on the subject.

Augusta, January 8, 1838.

All eves are now turned on the Senate. The Committee on Elections made their report this to a choice 34262. E. Kent had 34358 G morning to the House, declaring EDWARD KENT Parks had 33879 Scattering 28th. This gives elected Governor of Maine by a majority of 193 | Mr. Kent 193 over all others The report menvotes over all other candidates. This Report Tions a great many towns whose returns were will be accepted by the House, and will then slightly illegal, but were accepted, all of which immediately go up to the Senate. What will the with but two exceptions, gave great majorities majority in that body do, is the universal inquiry. for Parks. The House ordered the report to lie Will they dare to refuse to perform their constitution the table, and 1000 copies together with tutional duties. Not many of our triends here the returns of votes throughout the State, to be present to have made up any opinion on this printed. It is supposed that when the report Cultation. When the Legislature first organized, goes up to the Senate, they will make a little all, Whigs and Torys admitted that Mr Kent was opposition and then accept it; it would certain. elected Governor. But the events of the last ly be the best course for them to accept with as Minut at four days here have destroyed all con good a grace as possible, tidence of honest men in the integrity of the ma. The two branches met in Conventien to day jurity of the Schate. The honorable members and chose Mr Whipple (Whig) to fill the vacanof that body are daily, and nightly too, in close cy in the 8th Senatorial District consultation with office holders who are gatherrd bere from every quarter of the State, and the Lacos, chose Mr Hanston of Lisbon, Meswho openly and publicly declare that whatever senger of the House. Yours, &c. may be Kent's majority he cannot and shall not be declared elected; and from their intimace with Senators, it is supposed they speak "by eathority." It is not known whether the mi nority of the committee will make a counter report, or not. The young man who edits the Eastern Argus was busily engaged yesterday in writing something, probably a minority report. When men resolve to do wrong, they next try to get sume plausible pretext, and mike some show of reasons, to justify their conduct. If the Senate should dare to set at naught the will of the people, all political questions for the next year would be merged in the great one, whether votes thrown by the people, when there is no consti-Intional objection and no fraud pretended, shall be counted. It is a question too on which the honest of all parties will be united. And as sure as there is a Sun in Heaven, so sure that right will be vindicated, and popular indignation will not be estisfied; until Edward Kont-is clevated to the tighest office in the gift of the people of this State by an overwhelming majority.

H. Hainlin, Esq. of Hampden, enraged at his defeat in the House, is understood to be the west desperate in his determination to destroy. the efection. That Gentleman last winter was elevated to the Speaker's chair, and his unrivalled talents as a popular debater and sound convention quon which the people had long since logical reasoner were, cons quently, lost to the indigmently put their seal of reprobation and House and to the country. We shall at hand to prove his correctness, as cumulative postably hear from him to day the reasons why evidence that the report is faithfully true. Edward Kent, who has a majority of 193 votes }-of the people, ought not to be declared Governor of Maine: We shall have the "whys" and "wherefores" of these conspirators against the tights of the people. But I believe myself, since I have seen the report of the Committee, (and 1 think you will agree with me in the opinion) that when the consideration of the report comes up at the Sanate board in presence of the people, it will be accepted. The course the majority of the Committee have taken has been extremely generous to the minority. Every wish has been complied with, every enquiry has cheerfully been gone into, and the whole Legislature "kept'at a stand for the het 3 days at an expense of $1500 to gratify them. No substantial research why the report should not be accepted, and the Senate will snot do otherwise, than to Bgree with the House. The following is substratistly the report of the Committee.

The votes for Edward Kent were 34358 for Gorham Parks 32879 -for all others 286, this gives Mr. Kent 193 votes over all others, and he ia grantitutionally elected Governor of Maine.

"THE AGE!" We are sorry for our brother of the "Age." Poor fellow! The destruction of the last hopes of the office holders has made him mad. He is foaming at the mouth, perfectly rabid. What a pity, that the Insane Asylum is not completed! -He has forgotten the decenchanced last week, in giving a sketch of the proceedings of the Legislature, made up hum the report in the Daily Journal, to attribute to Mr. Hamlin an expression, which the Age says he did not use. And upon this, the Age charges our whole party with "lying, ' and us, mirabile dictal with "forgery." We will mark the definition for the next dictionary:

Forgery. Attributing to a public speaker an expression which he did not make use of. [Editor of Augusta Age.

Now if our account of Mr. Hamlin's speech be incorrect, the error lies with the Reporter of the Journal, and not with us, as the Age, undoubtedly is aware. The language spoken by Mr. Hamlin is thus reported in the Journal. The course proposed was unconstitutional, unjust and unprecedented in this State, except in one instance, and that was a certain fur famed buried in obligion." The truth of the Journal's report is in our mind established by the strong furnish, affu the course of the " Age" in at-

And now what course of conduct do the professed principles of Americans require of us?

We hold that every people have a right to govern themselves; and to adopt such a form of government as they shall deem best adapted to their wants and situation, and best calculated to promote their welfare and happiness.

We hold too, that the will of the majority should rule, and be the law of the land

The people of Upper Canada, the majority of them, have decided that they will support the Colonial Government Obed cive to out-oven principles then requires of us, that we should acquiesce in this decision; that we should not afford sympally, sid or encouragement to those, who are attempting to force upon theme government which they do not wish; and above all that we should leave the people of Canada to settle the question among themselves.

It did not seem to me credible, that in the basom of this perceful suntity where every one was enjoying the protection of equal laws, and reaping the fruits of his labors almost undininished by taxes, any number of persons could be found, willing to assail the lives, plunder the property of their unoffending fellowsubjects, and to attempt the destruction of a Covernment from which they had received nothing but good.

The long looked for crimis had now evidently arrived; and accordingly-defenceless and unarmed, I called upon the militia of Upper Canada to defend their Government, and then confidently awaited the wit.
